Lotusphere® Comes to You – Bermuda – 2009

Lotusphere Comes to You is a premier event series featuring new and timely presentations with content from Lotusphere sessions. This event will help you get more from your existing IT investment and boost collaboration across your enterprise.

Lotusphere Comes to You is a series of events that bring practical information to customers. Some of the topics you will learn more about: insight into collaboration tools and technology, how to stretch your current Lotus software investment, how IBM products provide for better collaboration and more productivity.

We have an exciting agenda planned that includes some of the most popular sessions from the original event in Orlando, with a variety of Business and Technical topics.

Lotusphere Comes to You is designed to bring anyone who couldn't get to Orlando the critical messages and the excitement they missed. Every valuable event has no charge to register, and every event will appeal to anyone with a stake or an interest in IBM's latest technologies such as Lotus Connections, Lotus Quickr®, Lotus Sametime, Lotus Forms, Lotus Notes/Domino and IBM WebSphere® Portal.
